ABOUT HONOREE PETER S. LYNCH

Vice Chairman, Fidelity Management and Research Company

PETER S. LYNCH is considered one of the most successful money managers in Wall Street history. He ran Fidelity's Magellan Fund from May 1977 to May 1990.

During his tenure, an investment of $1,000 in the fund starting in 1977 was worth $28,000 by the time he stepped down in 1990. For the thirteen years he ran the fund, it was the #1 fund in the world. In addition, by 1983 Magellan had become the largest fund, and for the subsequent seven years Lynch managed it, Magellan outperformed all other mutual funds. One out of every hundred Americans shared in these results.

Lynch is the author of three books, One Up on Wall Street, Beating the Street, and Learn to Earn. His works have been touted as some of the most successful books ever written about the stock market and investing. They have been translated into over twenty different languages and continue to be read all over the world.

He stopped running the Magellan Fund in 1990 to devote more time to non-profit work and to increase time spent with his wife, Carolyn, and three daughters. Today, Lynch serves on several boards of charities and as president of the family's Lynch Foundation. For over thirty years, he has devoted half his workweek to help raise scholarships for needy young students of all faiths and nationalities who live in the inner city of Boston and attend Catholic schools. This effort is called the Building Minds Scholarship Fund, and Lynch has helped raise more than $350 million, with $7 million or more in partial scholarships being awarded to needy children every year.

In addition to devoting his time to philanthropic work, profits from his three books and honorarium fees from speaking engagements have also been donated to charity.

Peter Lynch continues to serve as an Advisory Board Member for the Fidelity Funds, and he is the Vice Chairman of Fidelity Management & Research Company. He enjoys working with new analysts at Fidelity, meeting with them several times throughout the year.

BEN SIMMONEAU ANCHOR, WCVB CHANNEL 5

Award-winning veteran journalist Ben Simmoneau is an anchor/reporter for WCVB's NewsCenter 5 at 4PM, 5PM, and 5:30PM. Ben also leads the station's nationally recognized consumer reporting franchise, "Ben Has Your Back." By confronting businesses, state agencies, and federal programs to get answers for Massachusetts residents who need a hand, Ben has helped hundreds of viewers recoup thousands of dollars that are rightfully theirs, while sharing lessons learned so that others can avoid similar pitfalls.

Joining WCVB Channel 5 marked a return to Hearst Television for Ben, who began his career at WGAL, the Hearst-owned NBC affiliate in Harrisburg-Lancaster, PA. Ben joined NewsCenter 5 from WNYW, the Fox flagship station in New York City where he worked as a weekday morning anchor since June 2013. Prior to joining Fox, Ben spent five years working as an anchor and investigative reporter for KYW, the CBS-owned television station in Philadelphia.

Ben received the first-place award for "On-Air Personality — Television" at the 2017 Sound Bites Awards presented by the Massachusetts Broadcasters Association. He is also a three-time Emmy winner who has also been honored twice with an Edward R. Murrow Award — once at WGAL for investigative reporting and once for his role as part of the team at KYW, which won for Station Excellence. Ben's innovative coverage of the 2006 midterm elections earned him a Walter Cronkite Award from the University of Southern California for excellence in political journalism.

Before graduating from Ithaca College with a journalism degree, Ben worked for Chris Matthews as a researcher on his bestselling book American: Beyond Our Grandest Notions.

In New York, Ben served on the Executive Council of the Crohn's and Colitis Foundation of America Greater New York Chapter. He now works actively with the New England Chapter, hosting the annual Take Steps walk fundraiser and the organization's largest annual event, the Fete of Food and Wine. He has also worked in the past with the Children's Miracle Network and Alex's Lemonade Stand Foundation.

An avid runner, Ben also enjoys reading, traveling, and spending time with his wife and two children.

FROM OUR CHAIRS

Dear friends and esteemed guests,

Welcome to the 33rd Annual Building Minds Scholarship Fund Celebration! We come together today to recognize our father, who has dedicated his life to helping children in need through the Catholic Schools Foundation (CSF). As Peter's daughters, we want to express our deepest gratitude to all of you for your commitment to the mission of providing scholarship support to children and their families throughout Greater Boston.

As an author, philanthropist, investor, and mutual fund manager, Peter (Grandpa) has helped millions of Americans to build financial savings. Today, however, we want to recognize and honor his remarkable 33 years as President Emeritus of CSF — a deeply personal role and one of the greatest joys of his life.

The Building Minds Scholarship Fund (formerly Inner-City Scholarship Fund) is the cause to which our father feels the most deeply committed. He has made thousands of calls, written hundreds of personalized letters, and taken innumerable meetings to support the CSF scholars. We are inspired daily by his positive impact on the lives of so many children and know that our mother, Carolyn, is smiling down from above at all he has achieved.

As our father steps back, we invite you to join us in supporting and honoring his legacy. We are filled with pride and joy to celebrate this milestone with all of you.

Thank you for joining us today and for your unwavering commitment to making a transformative difference in the lives of young people.

With gratitude,

Annie Lynch Lukowski

Elizabeth Lynch de Montrichard

Mary Lynch Witkowski, M.D.

FROM OUR PRESIDENT & DIRECTOR

Dear Friends,

On behalf of the Catholic Schools Foundation (CSF), we welcome you to the 33rd Annual Building Minds Scholarship Fund Celebration. It is an honor to have you here with us, and we extend our heartfelt gratitude for your support. Your generosity enables us to provide thousands of at-risk students with the opportunity to receive a high-quality Catholic education and realize their full potential.

Although many families of different faiths and cultures seek to attend Catholic schools because of their exceptional education, values-based curriculum, safety, structure, and discipline, they are not able to afford such an opportunity. While CSF provides over 3,500 students with scholarships each year, the demand among low-income students for a Catholic education is much greater. Your continued support of CSF and this annual event is critical to these children.

Tonight, we have the pleasure of celebrating Peter Lynch's contributions to Catholic education in Boston. For three decades Peter Lynch has been the face of our work, introducing thousands to this vital work and personally raising tens of millions of dollars to support in-need students. His unwavering commitment and selfless service to CSF's mission is a true testament to his character and leadership. We are honored to recognize him tonight as he takes a step back from his over thirty years of tireless effort.

As we celebrate Peter, we also are called to action. As Peter begins to step back, we all must continue to step forward and build on Peter's effort. The need has never been greater nor your support more important.

We would also like to thank and recognize tonight's Committee Chairs and daughters of Peter, Annie Lynch Lukowski, Elizabeth Lynch de Montrichard, and Mary Lynch Witkowski, M.D., as well as the entire Event Committee for their exceptional work in making this year's event a record-breaking success. Their hard work and dedication is changing lives and is helping ensure that this vital work will continue for years to come.

We also want to express our appreciation to the Young Leaders and their Chair, Brennan Howley, for their invaluable support in creating a new generation of supporters. Their contributions are essential to ensuring the future success of our students.

Finally, we want to thank Bob Reynolds and his team at Putnam Investments as our video sponsor and Kyle Grimes and his team at WCVB Channel 5 as our media sponsor. Their continued commitment to this work is incredible and appreciated.

We hope that you enjoy meeting and speaking with some of our scholars during tonight's event. As you listen to their inspiring stories, please know that your support has made it possible for them to pursue their dreams and achieve success. Thank you for making this possible. For this work to continue, we need your continued support for years to come.

Together, We Change Lives.
